LAKE OSWEGO NEIGHBORHOODS

BRYANT

Big trees, the canal and a trail loop.

TAM'S TAKE

WHY I LOVE BRYANT

> Bryant sits along the Oswego Canal at the west end of Oswego Lake, about a mile from I-5. The streets are almost all homes, under tall Douglas firs and cedars.
>
> Want woods out the back door and the freeway close by? Start here. I'll show you which homes come with lake rights and which ones sit near the canal.

GOOD QUESTIONS

ASK TAM

Does Bryant flood?
Homes near the lake and canal carry higher flood risk than homes up the hill. I'll pull the flood map and an insurance quote for any home you like.

Does a home here come with lake access?
Docks, power boats and private lake facilities go with specific addresses, not whole neighborhoods: lakefront homes and homes with a deeded lake easement through the Lake Oswego Corporation. Since 2025, the public can also paddle and swim in from Lower Millennium Plaza Park under city rules, and that court case is on appeal. I check the lake rights on every home we tour.

How do I see homes here?
Book a consultation with me first. I'll build a search for this neighborhood, send you new listings the day they hit and get you in the door.
