LAKE OSWEGO NEIGHBORHOODS

MARY'S LANDING

The newest neighborhood, on the Willamette.

TAM'S TAKE

WHY I LOVE MARY'S LANDING

> Mary's Landing sits on the south end of Lake Oswego, with the Willamette River to the east and the West Linn border to the south. The city recognized the neighborhood association in 2024, which makes it the newest in town.
>
> The area includes the historic Marylhurst campus of the Sisters of the Holy Names, plus several homeowners association communities. Ask me which community fits how you live.

THE HOMES

WHAT YOU'LL FIND IN MARY'S LANDING

Homes and townhomes in several homeowners association communities, plus affordable housing at Marylhurst Commons.

- Each HOA has its own dues and rules. I'll pull the docs for any home you like.
- Some homes sit close to the river. I'll check flood maps for you.

INSIDER INTEL

TAM'S TIPS

- Drive Highway 43 along the river in the fall.
- Ask me which HOA community fits your budget.
- Compare Mary's Landing and Glenmorrie with me on the same day.

GOOD QUESTIONS

ASK TAM

Why is Mary's Landing new?
The area never had a city-recognized neighborhood association until the City Council approved one in April 2024.

Does a home here come with lake access?
Docks, power boats and private lake facilities go with specific addresses, not whole neighborhoods: lakefront homes and homes with a deeded lake easement through the Lake Oswego Corporation. Since 2025, the public can also paddle and swim in from Lower Millennium Plaza Park under city rules, and that court case is on appeal. I check the lake rights on every home we tour.

How do I see homes here?
Book a consultation with me first. I'll build a search for this neighborhood, send you new listings the day they hit and get you in the door.
